Health, Wealth and Wellness Conference and Resource Fair to Empower Entrepreneurs

Inglewood, CA — The Health, Wealth and Wellness Conference and Resource Fair on Saturday, October 25, 2014, will provide entrepreneurs with tips about California's tax laws and maintaining the health of their businesses and themselves.

The conference will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Hollywood Park-Pavilion, 3883 West Century Boulevard, Inglewood, CA 90303. Check-in begins at 8:15 a.m.

The event features an eclectic lineup of 19 guest speakers with expertise in both business and health care. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet their elected representatives who make decisions which affect small businesses.

"Building wealth within communities takes active collaboration and a never-ending thirst for knowledge," said Chairman Horton. "The Health, Wealth and Wellness Conference and Resource Fair will provide hardworking taxpayers with abundant seminars to help them understand our state's tax laws, and opportunities to learn about maintaining their own health and that of their businesses."

A wide array of seminars includes "Business Health and Wealth: Smart Tax Tips for a Healthy Business," "Optimizing Health through Proactive Health Maintenance," and "Taking your Business Online and Expanding through Marketing."

Guest speakers will be Joe DeMike of Google, Inc. and Dr. Raynald Samoa from the City of Hope. Keynote speakers will be Dr. Caroline Peck from the California Department of Public Health and Executive Director of Covered California, Peter Lee. Inglewood City Clerk Yvonne Horton will serve as Master of Ceremonies.

Plan to attend this free conference by registering online or by calling 1-888-847-9652.

Elected in 2010, Chairman Jerome E. Horton is the Fourth District Member of the California State Board of Equalization, representing more than 8.5 million residents in Los Angeles County. He is also the Board of Equalization's Legislative Committee Chairman. He is the first to serve on the Board of Equalization with over 21 years of experience at the BOE. Horton previously served as an Assembly Member of the California State Assembly from 2000-2006.

The five-member California State Board of Equalization is a publicly elected tax board. The Board of Equalization collects more than $56 billion annually in taxes and fees supporting state and local government services. It hears business tax appeals, acts as the appellate body for franchise and personal income tax appeals, and serves a significant role in the assessment and administration of property taxes.
